LAST MEDALS OF THE YEAR, TERRAVINO 2016

Gold Medal to Raices Gran Reserva 2009, and two Silver Medals for Love Cabernet Sauvignon and Love Tempranillo at Terravino 2016 Mediterranean International Wine & Spirit Challenge.

The recently marketed Brand LOVE is celebrating its first medals, won at Terravino 2016 Mediterranean International Wine & Spirit Challenge. The silver medals indicates the quality of our new Brand is appropriate and we are certain that many more medals and awards are waiting for us in the future.

Terravino 2016 took place between november 27th and December the 1st in the city of Ashdod, Israel. Founded eleven years ago, Terravino International Wine Competition has gained a prestigious reputation among the wine industry. The panel of judges include key figures in the wine industry, wine journalists, and prominent individuals from the tourism industry.

Fernando Castro, CEO of Bodegas Fernando Castro said, "This news is extremely exciting, and we truly put an enormous amount of time and energy to ensure our wines present quality. From day one, our mission as a winery was to produce outstanding wines for discerning wine enthusiasts across the globe, and this is exactly what we have accomplished."
