Castillo de Santa Bárbara Gran Reserva 2010 awarded with the Silver Medal at MUNDUS VINI 2016 - Summer Tasting.

This edition, Spain is in the top 3 countries / 302 wines awarded. Most prizes for Spanish wines are distributed between the regions of La Rioja, Castilla y León and Castilla La Mancha.

In the beginning of September a veritable tasting marathon took place in Neustadt, Germany, with 4300 wines from all over the world. The 150 jury members from 38 countries, travelled to Germany for this year's MUNDUS VINI Summer Tasting.

MUNDUS VINI is one of the most respected international wine competition. A highly qualified international jury comprising oenologists, wine-makers, professional wine traders, sommeliers and expert journalists taste the wines, sparkling wines and fortified wines in 'blind' tasting rounds. The number of products destined to receive prizes in the competition is limited to 40% of the samples submitted with the highest points tally reached in their relevant category.

With a minimum age of 60 months, of which at least 18 months have been spent in oak barrels with a maximum capacity of 225 l, Castillo de Santa Barbara Gran Reserva 2010 delight us with its ruby red colour, almost brick colour.

Its still intense aromas of ripen red fruits mixed with touches of toasted aroma from oak ageing, together with its pleasant taste in mouth and tasty long lasting end has conquered the jurors' palate.

Castillo de Santa Barbara Gran Reserva 2010 is excellent as a gift and special event. It matches well with grilled and roasted meat.
