Bodegas Fernando Castro, gold medals strike at the Berliner Wein Trophy Summer Edition

Thanks Berlin! This prestigious international wine competition has again selected the wines of Bodegas Fernando Castro in the gold panel, receiving a total of 4 medals.

Caballero Medieval Sauvignon Blanc 2015, Decreto Real Crianza 2013, Castillo de Baños Reserva 2012 and Castillo Santa Bárbara Gran Reserva 2010 have been awarded with gold medals in one of the most important competitions: the summer edition of International Berlin Wine Trophy.

In this summer edition still, sparkling and liqueur wines were presented, and Bodegas Fernando Castro participated again and obtained four new medals. 150 people represented the tasting panel and yielded a total score of 16 Grand Gold medals, 1,172 gold medals and 315 silver medals.

However, the OIV rules allow that only the 30% of the products with sufficient assessment can finally get medals. For this reason, every medal awarded in the Berliner Wein Trophy is exceptional and accentuates the popularity of the product among consumers.

After hearing the news, Fernando Castro Alcarazo, current general manager of the cellar, recalled his remarks in late July "The awards are the result of careful preparation set in line with a good presentation of the final product."

These four awards for the winning wines represent a great stepping stone to exports, priority goal for the cellar, increasing significantly its sales potential in foreign markets.
