The Entrepreneurs Federation awarded Bodegas Fernando Castro

The Entrepreneurs Federation from Valdepeñas, Campo de Montiel and La Solana counties (Feceval) has celebrated its 28th Anniversary with an Institutional Act in Valdepeñas. The act distinguished and honored companies and institutions that have stood out for their work and trajectory during the last year, including Bodegas Fernando Castro as Exemplary Company.

Among the speakers, the president of Feceval, Jesus Merlo, stressed that "they pay tribute to people who have stood out for their business work"; the mayor of Valdepeñas, Jesus Martin commented that "Valdepeñas is going well because there are entrepreneurs who work for their own and think about others and create jobs", and Rosa Romero made reference to this meeting of entrepreneurs as "a tribute to the work of those who bring wealth to this area."

The vice president of the provincial deputy Manuel Martínez Lopez presented the recognition to the "Exemplary Company" to Bodegas Fernando Castro. Fernando Castro Alcarazo, current manager at Bodegas Fernando Castro picked up the award, and made a brief presentation in which he showed words of thanks for the award.

During his speech he referred to the winery as the oldest winery of CLM under the direction of the same family. He pointed the succes was due to the labor of a great team adapted to the new legislation and new technologies, with great effort and a constant work of learning along with the experience of the tradition. He also thanked his family and the members of the winery for the success and longevity of the winery.
